– About this insurance

Welcome

Welcome and thank you for choosing Holden Loan Protection Insurance. Holden Loan Protection Insurance offers you a choice of covers to protect your vehicle finance, including death, trauma, disablement or involuntary unemployment. You can also feel secure in the knowledge that we've chosen Allianz, one of the largest general insurers in Australia, to underwrite your policy. Allianz is a member of the Global Allianz group, which operates in more than 70 countries, providing protection to more than 78 million customers worldwide.

Preparation Date: 04/03/2014.

About the insurers

Allianz Australia Insurance Limited is the insurer of the disability cover (see Part 2) and involuntary unemployment cover (see Part 3) and is only responsible for these covers.

Allianz Australia Life Insurance Limited is the insurer of the trauma and death cover (see Part 1) and is only responsible for this cover. Allianz acts as Allianz Life's agent in offering and administering the trauma and death cover.

Full details of the insurers are found on page 15. References to "we", "our" or "us" only apply to Allianz and Allianz Life for the cover they are responsible for.

What is the purpose of this insurance?

Holden Loan Protection Insurance is consumer credit insurance and by way of summary, its purpose is to pay (up to the maximum policy benefits):

- part of your loan repayments if you are unable to work due to a defined injury or illness (we call this disability cover),

- part of your loan repayments if you become involuntarily unemployed (we call this involuntary unemployment cover),
- the outstanding balance of your loan if you should die or suffer a defined trauma (we call this trauma and death cover). The trauma and death cover does not have a surrender value and does not entitle you to participate in our profits.

This insurance covers you for the period of insurance stated on the policy schedule or until the policy ends (see “When the policy ends” on page 27), whichever happens first. If there is a general increase in the interest rate charged by your financial institution resulting in the term of the loan being extended, the expiry date shown on the policy schedule will be extended by up to 6 months, free of charge.

While the policy is in force you are covered 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, and 365 days a year.

Choice of cover

You may choose any one of the following combinations of cover:

- trauma and death, disability and involuntary unemployment,
- disability and involuntary unemployment,
- trauma and death and disability,
- disability only, or
- trauma and death only.

(See “Applying for cover” on pages 7 to 10 on how to apply).

Benefit payments

We make all benefit payments directly to the financial institution you have your loan agreement with. They are calculated by reference to the amount you owe under the loan agreement to which your policy relates.

Maximum benefits

The maximum policy benefits we pay for the cover(s) you have been provided with, no matter how many people are covered or how many claims are made, are shown in the following table. The information is a basic summary only and does not set out the full details of the benefits.

Cover	Maximum Policy Benefits
Trauma and Death	The maximum benefit is the lesser of the net balance due and payable under the loan agreement at the date of your death or trauma or $100,000. We only pay one claim under trauma and death cover even if there is more than one insured person. Other limitations apply (see Part 1 – Trauma and Death cover).
Disability	We will pay a daily benefit at the rate of one-thirtieth of the minimum monthly repayment amount required under your loan agreement for each day you are totally disabled after the 7 day elimination period up to a maximum monthly amount of $3,000. Our payment will continue for as long as you are totally disabled or until the policy ends, whichever happens first. The maximum total benefit payable during the entire period of insurance, no matter how many times you become totally disabled and for claims by all insured persons combined, is $100,000. No amount is paid for the 7 day elimination period. Other limitations apply (see Part 2 – Disability cover).

Involuntary Unemployment	We will pay a daily benefit at the rate of one-thirtieth of the minimum monthly repayment amount required under your loan agreement for each day you are involuntarily unemployed after the 7 day elimination period up to a maximum of $4,000 per claim. Our payment will continue for as long as you remain involuntarily unemployed up to a maximum period of 120 days or until the policy ends, whichever happens first. The maximum amount payable during the entire period of insurance is $10,000 for claims by all insured persons combined. No amount is paid for the 7 day elimination period. Other limitations apply (see Part 3 – Involuntary Unemployment cover).

Make sure you understand what is and is not covered

Section B of this document sets out the cover(s) we are able to provide you with. You need to decide if the limits, type and level of cover(s) are appropriate for you and will cover your potential loss. If they are not, you may be underinsured and have to bear part of any loss you are not covered for yourself.

Not everything is covered by this insurance and there are limitations. It is important that you read this document carefully, so that you can understand what we cover and the limitations.

Read “Words with special meanings” (see pages 12 to 15) to ensure you understand what we mean by terms used in relation to the cover we provide. For example “total disablement”, “involuntary unemployment” and “net balance due and payable” are defined terms that affect what we cover you for.

Read each cover part which will tell you the events we can cover. For example:

- your death, trauma, total disability or involuntary unemployment must occur during the period of insurance;
- your total disability and involuntary unemployment must be for longer than the 7 day elimination period; and
- no benefits are payable from the time the policy ends.

Make sure you understand what we specifically exclude. Each cover has specific exclusions that apply to it. For example, we do not cover you for certain pre-existing illnesses or injuries, or for self-inflicted injuries (including suicide). See “When we will not pay” for each cover on pages 16 to 18 (Part 1 – Trauma and Death cover), 19 to 22 (Part 2 – Disability cover) and 23 to 25 (Part 3 – Involuntary Unemployment cover) for full details of the exclusions that apply.

Make sure you comply with the relevant conditions of your policy. If you don't we may refuse to pay or reduce any claim and/or cancel the policy.

For full details of what we do and do not cover please read this document together with your policy schedule once issued.

Applying for cover

Eligibility

You are eligible to apply for this insurance if you:

- are at least 16 years of age at the effective date and not more than 64 years of age during the period of insurance, and
- are in good health and not aware that you have any sickness or disability that a reasonable person in the circumstances would be aware of, and
- have no knowledge or warning of any proposed or actual termination or decrease in work available to you and are actively employed in a paid permanent occupation for not less than 20 hours per week if you wish to apply for disability cover or involuntary unemployment cover, and

- are not self-employed and are in permanent employment if you wish to apply for involuntary unemployment cover, and
- are applying for a new loan.

Other eligibility criteria may apply and we will tell you what they are when you apply.

No medical

You do not need a medical examination to apply for this insurance. All we require is your confirmation that the information and answers given by you in your application are true and accurate.

Not compulsory and free choice of insurer

The purchase of this insurance is not compulsory, nor is it a condition of your loan agreement approval.

You should also be aware that you can arrange similar insurance (often known as consumer credit insurance) through different insurers if you wish.

Your premium

We advise what the premium is and the method of payment acceptable to us, either before or at the time the insurance is issued. The policy schedule contains the details of the premium.

The premium amount varies depending on certain factors, such as our costs, the level of cover you select, your loan amount and other information you provide to us when applying for this insurance. The premium amount also includes amounts that take into account our obligation to pay any relevant compulsory government charges, taxes or levies (for example, Stamp Duty and GST where applicable) in relation to your policy.

The application and acceptance process

Before you make a decision and buy this insurance you must:

- read this document to ensure you are eligible and to decide whether the insurance is right for you, and
- answer all questions in your application truthfully and accurately and provide it to the motor vehicle dealer or broker acting as our agent. Please refer to your Duty of Disclosure set out in “Section C – Other important information” on page 30. If you fail to comply with your Duty of Disclosure, we may be entitled to reduce our liability under the policy in respect of a claim or we may cancel your policy. If you have told us something which is fraudulent, we may cancel your policy from its commencement.

We enter into a policy with you when you are issued with a policy schedule confirming the applicable cover(s), who is insured, the period of insurance, cover restrictions and other important information. It will be issued by us or the motor vehicle dealer or broker acting as our agent. See “Section B – Your cover” on pages 11 to 29 for details of what makes up your policy with us once issued and the basis on which we insure you.

Any new or replacement policy schedule you may receive from us, detailing changes to your policy or the period of insurance will become the policy schedule.

Non-Renewable

This is non-renewable insurance, and the period of insurance will not continue beyond 6 years. Please be aware that all benefits will cease when the policy ends irrespective of the amount already paid or the date on which you become totally disabled or involuntarily unemployed (see “When the policy ends” on page 27).

Cooling off and cancellation rights

You can cancel your insurance or any of the covers chosen for any reason within 14 days of receiving a policy schedule from us (we call this the cooling off period).

To exercise this right you must return the policy schedule to us, together with a cancellation letter within the above period. We will refund the premium paid in full unless an incident has occurred which may result in a claim.

In addition to cooling off you have cancellation rights (see “Cancellation of the policy” on page 26 for full details of your cancellation rights).

Commission

Our agents receive a commission for arranging this insurance. In arranging this insurance an agent is acting as our agent and not as your agent. The aggregate commission payable to all agents is 20% of the total premium amount payable, excluding Stamp Duty and government charges.

Section B – Your cover

What the policy consists of

Where we have agreed to cover you (as described in “The application and acceptance process” in Section A on pages 8 to 9), your policy will consist of:

- this printed Holden Loan Protection Insurance Product Disclosure Statement and Policy Document, which sets out details of your cover and its limitations; and
- a policy schedule approved by us which sets out who is insured, the cover selected, the period of insurance, the limits of cover and other important information.

You should carefully read and retain this document and your policy schedule. These documents should be read together as they jointly form the contract of insurance between you and us. Any new or replacement policy schedule we may send you detailing changes to your insurance or the period of insurance will become the policy schedule which you should carefully read and retain.

Our agreement with you

Where we have agreed to cover you (as described in “The application and acceptance process” in Section A on pages 8 to 9) we will insure you for the cover(s) specified on the policy schedule for the period of insurance on the basis:

- that you have paid, or agreed to pay us the premium for the cover(s) you selected when you applied for this insurance and which the policy schedule indicates are in force,
- of the verbal and/or written information provided by you which you gave having been advised of your Duty of Disclosure either verbally or in writing.

If you failed to comply with your Duty of Disclosure, we may be entitled to reduce our liability under the policy in respect of a claim or we may cancel your policy. If you have told us something which is fraudulent, we also have the option of avoiding your policy from the effective date stated on the policy schedule.

For your assistance we have provided a full explanation of your Duty of Disclosure and the consequences of non-disclosure under the heading "Your Duty of Disclosure" on page 30.

Words with special meanings

The following words have the meaning set out below when they appear in this document and your policy schedule.

"cancer" means the presence and diagnosis of one or more internal malignant cells or tumours, including Leukaemia, Lymphoma and Hodgkin's Disease, that is confirmed by pathology tests and requires treatment by surgery, radiotherapy, hormone therapy or chemotherapy. Included are any malignant tumours considered too advanced or too serious for specific treatment to be warranted. Excluded are:

- tumours classed as carcinoma in situ, including cervical dysplasia classified CIN 1, CIN 2 or CIN 3, or pre-malignant tumours; or
- tumours treated by endoscopic procedures alone; or
- prostatic or bladder cancers which are historically described as TNM classification T1 (including T1a or T1b) or another equivalent or lesser classification; or
- all hyperkeratosis or basal cell carcinomas of the skin and all squamous cell carcinomas of the skin unless there is evidence they have spread to other organs; or
- Kaposi's Sarcoma or other tumours caused by or associated with Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV) or Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS) as defined by the World Health Organization from time to time, or in the absence of any such definition, by any other recognised governmental health organisation selected by us.

“coronary artery by-pass” means coronary artery by-pass grafting surgery performed via a thoracotomy.

“date of your trauma” means the date on which, in our opinion, the trauma has been conclusively diagnosed for the first time.

“effective date” means the effective date shown on the policy schedule.

“elimination period” means the first 7 days of any claim commencing on the first date you are totally disabled or involuntarily unemployed in respect of a claim. We pay no benefits for or during this period.

“financial institution” means the financial institution shown on the policy schedule.

“heart attack” means death of a portion of heart muscle as a result of inadequate blood supply to the relevant area. The basis for diagnosis shall include:

- a. new and permanent electrocardiographic (ECG) changes associated with a Myocardial Infarction;
- b. elevation to at least twice the upper normal level of cardiac enzymes consistent with a Myocardial Infarction.

“illness” means illness, sickness or disease which manifests itself during the period of insurance and does not include any injury.

“injury” means bodily injury caused solely by accidental, external and visible means which occurs during the period of insurance and does not include any illness.

“involuntary unemployment” and “involuntarily unemployed” means a period during which you are registered and certified as unemployed by Centrelink or such other equivalent Commonwealth Government Authority following a termination of your employment which was not by your choice.

“loan agreement” means the loan agreement shown on the policy schedule.

“major stroke” means any infarction of brain tissue as a result of a cerebrovascular incident that is associated with evidence of neurological dysfunction that causes permanent functional impairment of at least 25% of whole person function, which is confirmed by a consultant neurologist. It excludes any:

- infarction of brain tissue as a result of bodily injury caused by accidental, external and visible means, or
- vascular disease affecting the nerve(s), or
- transient ischaemic attacks, or
- cerebral symptoms due to migraine.

“net balance due and payable” means the amount outstanding under the loan agreement at the date of your death or date of trauma (where trauma and death cover applies) or the date you are totally disabled (where disability cover applies) plus any credit charges accrued for up to 2 months after that date. This amount does not include any arrears in loan repayments in excess of 2 months.

“period of insurance” means the period of time beginning on the effective date shown on the policy schedule and ending on the earlier of the expiry date shown on the policy schedule or the date the policy ends (see “When the policy ends” on page 27). If there is a general increase in the interest rate charged by your financial institution resulting in the term of the loan being extended, the expiry date shown on the policy schedule will be extended by up to 6 months, free of charge. The period of insurance will not continue beyond 6 years from the effective date.

“permanent employment” means being employed on a regular basis for a period of not less than 20 hours per week for remuneration or reward.

“premium” means the amount paid or payable by you for the cover(s) shown as applicable on the policy schedule.

“registered medical practitioner” means a person who is legally entitled to practice medicine by virtue of appropriate registration with the appropriate authority in the relevant State or Territory in which they are providing the relevant medical advice.

“totally disabled”, “total disability” and “total disablement” means where a registered medical practitioner has advised that you are unable to attend or engage in your usual profession, business or occupation because you have suffered an injury or an illness and where requested by us, this advice has been verified by a registered medical practitioner chosen by us.

“trauma” means cancer, coronary artery bypass surgery, heart attack or major stroke.

“we”, “our” or “us” means:

- Allianz Australia Insurance Limited, AFS Licence No. 234708, ABN 15 000 122 850 in respect of the disability and involuntary unemployment covers under Parts 2 and 3 of the policy,
- Allianz Australia Life Insurance Limited, AFS Licence No. 296559, ABN 27 076 033 782 in respect of the trauma and death cover under Part 1 of the policy.

“you” or “your” means the insured person or persons named on the policy schedule.

Part 1 – Trauma and Death cover

Part 1 – Trauma and Death cover only applies if the policy schedule shows that it applies and you have paid or agreed to pay the premium set out on the policy schedule for it. Allianz Life is the insurer of this cover. This trauma and death cover forms part of the No. 1 Statutory Fund of Allianz Life and it does not have a surrender value, nor does it entitle you to participate in our profits.

1. What we will pay

Death benefit

If you die during the period of insurance we will pay your financial institution the net balance due and payable by you under your loan agreement as at the date of your death, up to a maximum amount of $100,000 during the period of insurance.

Trauma benefit

If you are diagnosed during the period of insurance with one of the following traumas:

- cancer,
- coronary artery bypass surgery,
- heart attack, or
- major stroke;

we will pay your financial institution the net balance due and payable by you under your loan agreement as at the date of your trauma, up to a maximum amount of $100,000 during the period of insurance.

2. When we will not pay

We will not pay:

a. More than one person

more than one claim for trauma or death in the period of insurance even if the policy is in the name of more than one insured person.

b. Illness during the first 90 days of cover

if the illness which gives rise to the trauma manifests itself during the first 90 days of the period of insurance.

c. Pre-existing injury or illness for any claim for your trauma or death that is directly or indirectly caused by any injury or illness or other condition relating to your health:

- of which you were aware or received advice or treatment from a registered medical practitioner or health professional for, within the 6 month period before the period of insurance commenced; or
- of which you, or a reasonable person in the circumstances, were aware of symptoms for which a reasonable person would have sought medical advice or treatment within the 6 month period before the period of insurance commenced; and
- where you required treatment for the same condition within the 6 month period after the commencement of the period of insurance.

If however, you previously held a policy with us that has been cancelled and we agreed to replace it with this insurance and it would have covered your claim, we will cover you under this insurance and pay the lesser of:

- the relevant benefits payable under this insurance, or
- the benefits that would have been payable under the cancelled policy for the period of insurance provided by that policy.

d. Self-inflicted injury or illness

if your trauma or death is caused directly or indirectly by or arises from a deliberately self-inflicted injury or illness (including suicide or attempted suicide) that occurs within 13 months of the effective date.

e. Criminal activity

if your trauma or death arises out of you taking part in a criminal activity.

f. War

if your trauma or death is caused by or arises from any war, hostilities or warlike operations (whether war be declared or not), rebellion, civil war, revolution, insurrection, military or usurped power, invasion, act of foreign enemy or popular or military rising.

Other terms and conditions apply to this cover. See “Conditions of cover” on pages 26 to 27 and “How to make a claim” on pages 28 to 29 for the details of these terms and conditions.

Part 2 – Disability cover

Part 2 – Disability cover applies only if the policy schedule shows that it applies and you have paid or agreed to pay the premium set out on the policy schedule for it. Allianz is the insurer of this cover.

1. What we will pay

In the event you become totally disabled during the period of insurance we will pay your financial institution a daily benefit at the rate of one-thirtieth of the minimum monthly repayment amount required under your loan agreement for each day you are totally disabled after the elimination period up to a maximum monthly amount of $3,000.

Our payment will continue for as long as you are totally disabled or until the policy ends, whichever happens first.

The maximum total benefit we will pay during the period of insurance, no matter how many times you become totally disabled and for claims by all insured persons combined, is $100,000.

2. When we will not pay

We will not pay:

a. More than one insured in respect of more than one insured person for the same period of total disablement.

b. Failure to follow medical advice

if you do not obtain or follow the advice of a registered medical practitioner.

c. Pre-existing injury or illness for any claim for your total disability that is directly or indirectly caused by any injury or illness or other condition relating to your health:

- of which you were aware or received advice or treatment from a registered medical practitioner or health professional for, within the 6 month period before the period of insurance commenced; or
- of which you, or a reasonable person in the circumstances, were aware of symptoms for which a reasonable person would have sought medical advice or treatment within the 6 month period before the period of insurance commenced; and
- where you required treatment for the same condition within the 6 month period after the commencement of the period of insurance.

If however, you previously held a policy with us that has been cancelled and we agreed to replace it with this insurance and it would have covered your claim, we will cover you under this insurance and pay the lesser of:

- the relevant benefits payable under this insurance, or
- the benefits that would have been payable under the cancelled policy for the period of insurance provided by that policy.

d. Self-inflicted injury or illness

if your total disablement is caused directly or indirectly by or arises from a deliberately self-inflicted injury or illness (including attempted suicide) that occurs within 13 months of the effective date.

e. Liquor or drugs

if your total disablement arises directly or indirectly because of your consumption or use of:

- intoxicating liquor,
- narcotics, or
- drugs (other than a drug taken or administered by or in accordance with the advice of a registered medical practitioner).

f. Criminal activity

if your total disablement arises out of you taking part in a criminal activity.

g. Riot and civil commotion if your total disablement arises out of you taking part in a riot, civil commotion, strike or lockout.

h. Professional sports

if your total disablement is caused by professional racing of any kind (other than foot racing), or any form of professional football, boxing or wrestling.

i. War

if your total disablement is caused by or arises from any war, hostilities or warlike operations (whether war be declared or not), rebellion, civil war, revolution, insurrection, military or usurped power, invasion, act of foreign enemy or popular or military rising.

j. Nuclear

if your total disablement is caused directly or indirectly by or arises from ionising radiation or contamination by radioactivity from:

- any nuclear fuel or nuclear waste,
- the combustion of nuclear fuel (including any self-sustained process of nuclear fission), or
- nuclear weapons material.

k. Terrorism

if your total disablement arises directly or indirectly out of or in any way connected with:

- a. any act of terrorism arising directly or indirectly out of or in any way connected with biological, chemical, radioactive, or nuclear pollution or contamination or explosion; or
- b. any action in controlling, preventing, suppressing, retaliating against, or responding to any act referred to in (a) above.

An act of terrorism includes, but is not limited to, any act, preparation in respect of action or threat of action, designed to:

- a. influence a government or any political division within it for any purpose, and/or

- b. influence or intimidate the public or any section of the public with the intention of advancing a political, religious, ideological or similar purpose.

Other terms and conditions apply to this cover. See “Conditions of cover” on pages 26 to 27 and “How to make a claim” on pages 28 to 29 for the details of these terms and conditions.

Part 3 – Involuntary Unemployment cover

Part 3 – Involuntary Unemployment cover applies only if the policy schedule shows that it applies and you have paid or agreed to pay the premium set out on the policy schedule for it. Allianz is the insurer of this cover.

1. What we will pay

In the event you become involuntarily unemployed during the period of insurance we will pay your financial institution, a daily benefit at the rate of one-thirtieth of the minimum monthly repayment amount required under your loan agreement for each day you are involuntarily unemployed after the elimination period up to a maximum of $4,000 per claim.

Our payment will continue for as long as you remain involuntarily unemployed up to a maximum period of 120 days or until the policy ends, whichever happens first (see “When the policy ends” on page 27).

The maximum amount payable during the entire period of insurance is $10,000 for claims by all insured persons combined.

2. When we will not pay

We will not pay:

a. More than one person

in respect of more than one insured person for the same period of involuntary unemployment.

b. Permanently or self-employed if you were not engaged in paid permanent employment or were self-employed immediately before or on the effective date of the period of insurance.

c. 14 days employment prior to claim if you were not engaged in paid permanent employment for at least 14 consecutive working days immediately prior to any period of involuntary unemployment.

d. Involuntary unemployment during the first 14 days of cover if you become involuntarily unemployed during the first 14 days of the period of insurance.

e. Involuntary unemployment of which you were aware if you become involuntarily unemployed and before this contract was entered into you had knowledge or warning of any proposed or actual termination or decrease in work available to you.

f. Seasonal employment

if your involuntary unemployment is caused by the seasonal or irregular nature of your work.

g. Contract employment

if your involuntary unemployment is caused by the end of a non-renewable contract which was limited to a specified work period.

h. Voluntary unemployment

if you voluntarily become unemployed.

i. Injury or illness

if your involuntary unemployment is caused by any bodily injury, illness, sickness or disease.

j. Misconduct

if your involuntary unemployment arises out of misconduct of any kind.

k. Liquor or drugs

if your involuntary unemployment arises directly or indirectly because of your consumption or use of:

- intoxicating liquor,
- narcotics, or
- drugs (other than a drug taken or administered by or in accordance with the advice of a registered medical practitioner).

l. Criminal activity

if your involuntary unemployment arises out of you taking part in a criminal activity.

m. Riot and civil commotion if your involuntary unemployment arises out of you taking part in a riot, civil commotion, strike or lockout.

n. War

if your involuntary unemployment is caused by or arises from any war, hostilities or warlike operations (whether war be declared or not), rebellion, civil war, revolution, insurrection, military or usurped power, invasion, act of foreign enemy or popular or military rising.

o. Nuclear

if your involuntary unemployment is caused directly or indirectly by or arises from ionising radiation or contamination by radioactivity from:

- any nuclear fuel or nuclear waste,
- the combustion of nuclear fuel (including any self-sustained process of nuclear fission), or
- nuclear weapons material.

p. Terrorism

if your involuntary unemployment arises directly or indirectly out of or in any way connected with:

- a. any act of terrorism arising directly or indirectly out of or in any way connected with biological, chemical, radioactive, or nuclear pollution or contamination or explosion; or
- b. any action in controlling, preventing, suppressing, retaliating against, or responding to any act referred to in (a) above.

An act of terrorism includes, but is not limited to, any act, preparation in respect of action or threat of action, designed to:

- a. influence a government or any political division within it for any purpose, and/or
- b. influence or intimidate the public or any section of the public with the intention of advancing a political, religious, ideological or similar purpose.

Other terms and conditions apply to this cover. See “Conditions of cover” on pages 26 to 27 and “How to make a claim” on pages 28 to 29 for the details of these terms and conditions.

Conditions of cover

1. Changes to your policy

Nothing in your policy with us may be changed unless we agree to the changes in writing.

2. Cancellation of the policy

- a. In addition to your cooling off rights (see “Cooling off and cancellation rights” on page 9), you may cancel your policy with us or any part of it at any time by notifying us in writing. If the policy has been issued to more than one person each person must sign the notice.
- b. We have the right to cancel your policy with us where permitted by law. For example, we can cancel your policy with us:
 - if you have failed to comply with your Duty of Disclosure, or
 - where you have made a misrepresentation to us during negotiations prior to the issue of the policy, or
 - where you have failed to comply with a provision of your policy, including the term relating to premium payment, or
 - if you have made a fraudulent claim under your policy or under some other contract of insurance that provides cover during the same period of time as your policy.
- c. If you or we cancel the policy after the cooling off period, we may deduct a proportion of the premium for time on risk and reasonable administrative costs related to the acquisition and termination of the policy in accordance with any relevant legislation, together with any government taxes or duties that we cannot recover.

3. When the policy ends

Unless we agree otherwise, the policy will cease to be in force and all future claim payments under the policy will stop at the earliest of:

- a. the expiry of the period of insurance;
- b. the date the policy is cancelled;
- c. the date the loan under the loan agreement is repaid;
- d. the date the loan agreement is cancelled;
- e. the sixth anniversary of the effective date of the period of insurance;
- f. the date your indebtedness under the loan agreement is transferred to someone else;
- g. the date you turn 65 years of age. When this policy insures joint insureds, cover for each individual insured will cease when that person turns 65 years of age;
- h. the date of your trauma or death;
- i. the date you no longer permanently reside in Australia;
- j. the date we pay to your financial institution the lesser of the net balance due and payable by you under the loan agreement or $100,000.

Each of the above conditions apply only to the extent that the relevant insurer of the cover in question is able to rely on the condition in relation to the cover provided by them.

How to make a claim

1. How to make a death claim

- a. Your financial institution or the legal personal representative of your estate must apply in writing to Allianz (acting as agent of Allianz Life) as soon as practicable after your death. This application must be in our required form.
- b. The legal personal representative of your estate can obtain a claim form by contacting Allianz.
- c. Proof, at the expense of your estate and in a form satisfactory to us, must be provided to us as to your identity, the fact and cause of your death and the existence of the loan agreement.

2. How to make a trauma claim

Section C – Other important information

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into an insurance contract with us, the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 requires you to provide us with the information we need to enable us to decide whether and on what terms your application for insurance is acceptable and to calculate how much premium is required for your insurance.

What you must tell us

We will ask you various questions when you apply for cover. When you answer those questions, you must give us honest and complete answers and tell us anything known to you, and which a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know is relevant to our decision whether to insure you and whether any special conditions need to apply to your policy.

What you do not need to tell us

You do not need to tell us about any matter:

- that diminishes our risk;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that we know or should know as an insurer; or
- that we tell you we do not need to know.

Who needs to tell us

It is important that you understand you are answering our questions in this way for yourself and anyone else that you want to be covered by the policy.

If you do not tell us

If you do not answer our questions in this way, we may reduce or refuse to pay a claim, or cancel the policy. If you answer our questions fraudulently, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the policy as never having worked

Privacy Notice

At Allianz, we give priority to protecting the privacy of your personal information. We do this by handling personal information in a responsible manner and in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth).

How We Collect Your Personal Information

We usually collect your personal information directly from you or your agents. We may also collect it from our agents and service providers; other insurers and insurance reference bureaus; people who are involved in a claim, including third parties claiming under your policy, your employer, external claims data collectors and verifiers and medical service providers; third parties who may be arranging insurance cover for a group that you are a part of; law enforcement, dispute resolution, statutory and regulatory bodies; marketing lists and industry databases; and publicly available sources.

Why We Collect Your Personal Information

We collect your personal information (other than sensitive information) to enable us to provide our products and services, including to process and settle claims; offer our products and services and those of our related companies, brokers, intermediaries and business partners that may interest you; and conduct market or customer research to determine those products or services that may suit you.

You can choose not to receive product or service offerings from us (including product or service offerings from us on behalf of our brokers, intermediaries and/or our business partners) or our related companies by calling the Allianz Direct Marketing Privacy Service Line on 1300 360 529, EST 8am to 6pm Monday to Friday, or going to our website's Privacy section at www.allianz.com.au/about-us/privacy.

We collect your sensitive information (which may include information related to genetic testing) from you for the purpose of providing our product and services, including to underwrite insurance cover; assess and settle claims; and undertake research analysis and design new insurance products.

If you do not provide your personal (including sensitive) information we require, we may not be able to provide you with our services, including settlement of claims.

Who We Disclose Your Personal Information To

We may disclose your personal information to others with whom we have business arrangements for the purposes listed in the relevant paragraph above or (except in the case of sensitive information) to enable them to offer their products and services to you. These parties may include insurers, intermediaries, reinsurers, insurance reference bureaus, related companies, our advisers, persons involved in claims, external claims data collectors and verifiers, parties that we have an insurance scheme in place with under which you purchased your policy (such as a financier).

We will not disclose your sensitive information for any purpose other than the purpose for which it was collected or a directly related secondary purpose, unless you otherwise consent.

We may also disclose your personal (including sensitive) information if it is required to be disclosed to government, law enforcement, dispute resolution, statutory or regulatory bodies, or as required by law.

Disclosure Overseas

In some instances, your personal information may be disclosed to other companies in the Allianz Group, business partners, reinsurers and service providers that may be located in Australia or overseas. The countries this information may be disclosed to will vary from time to time, but may include Canada, Germany, New Zealand, United Kingdom, United States of America and other countries where the Allianz Group has a presence or engages subcontractors. We regularly review the security of our systems used for sending personal information overseas. Any information disclosed may only be used for the purposes of collection detailed above and system administration.

Access to Your Personal Information and Complaints

You may ask for access to the personal information we hold about you and seek correction by calling 1300 360 529, EST 8am to 6pm Monday to Friday. Our Privacy Policy contains details about how you may make a complaint about a breach of the privacy principles contained in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and how we deal with complaints. Our Privacy Policy is available at www.allianz.com.au/about-us/privacy

Complaints and disputes

We have a complaints resolution process that can be accessed by contacting us. If this process doesn't resolve the matter, we will give you information about how to access our external dispute resolution scheme, the Financial Ombudsman Service Limited (FOS).

FOS is independent, free of charge and binding on us but they will only review disputes that have been through our internal dispute resolution process and are within their terms.

They can be contacted at:

General Insurance Code of Practice

The General Insurance Code of Practice was developed by the Insurance Council of Australia to further raise standards of practice and service across the insurance industry.

Allianz keenly supports the standards set out in the Code and they apply to the disability and involuntary unemployment covers it provides.

You can obtain more information on the Code of Practice and how it assists you by contacting us.

General Product Disclosure Statement information

This document is also a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) under the Corporations Act.

Allianz and Allianz Life both take full responsibility for the content of this document for the purposes of the PDS requirements of the Corporations Act. However, each only insures you for the cover they are responsible for and can only exercise rights under the policy that relate to the cover provided by them.

We may need to update this PDS from time to time if certain changes occur where required and permitted by law. We will issue you with a new PDS or a Supplementary PDS to update the relevant information except in limited cases. Where the information is not something that would be materially adverse from the point of view of a reasonable person considering whether to buy this insurance, we may issue you with notice of this information in other forms or keep an internal record of such changes (You can get a paper copy free of charge by calling us).

Financial Claims Scheme

In the unlikely event Allianz Australia Insurance Limited were to become insolvent and could not meet its obligations under this Policy, a person entitled to claim may be entitled to payment under the Financial Claims Scheme. Access to the Scheme is subject to eligibility criteria and for more information see APRA website at <http://www.apra.gov.au> and the APRA hotline on 1300 55 88 49.

Phoning for assistance and confirmation of cover

The “Duty of Disclosure” section is deleted and replaced as follows:

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into this insurance with us, you have a duty of disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984.

The Act imposes a different duty the first time you enter into a contract of insurance with us to that which applies when you vary, extend, reinstate or replace the contract.

This duty of disclosure applies until the contract is entered into (or varied, extended or reinstated as applicable).

Your Duty of Disclosure when you enter into the contract with us for the first time

When answering our specific questions that are relevant to our decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms, you must be honest and disclose to us anything that you know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances would include in answer to the questions.

It is important that you understand you are answering our questions in this way for yourself and anyone else that you want to be covered by the contract.

Your Duty of Disclosure when you vary, extend, reinstate or replace the contract

When you vary, extend, reinstate or replace the contract with us, your duty is to disclose to us every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to our decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

What you do not need to tell us

Your duty however does not require disclosure of any matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by us; or
- that is of common knowledge; or
- that we know or, in the ordinary course of our business as an insurer, ought to know; or
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by us.

Non-disclosure – general insurance (cover underwritten by Allianz)

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, we may be entitled to reduce our liability under the general insurance contract in respect of a claim, cancel the contract or both.

Non-disclosure – life insurance (cover underwritten by Allianz Life)

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure and we would not have entered into the life insurance contract on any terms if the failure had not occurred, we may avoid the contract within 3 years of entering into it.

If we are, or have been, entitled to avoid the contract of life insurance, but do not avoid it, we may elect at any time, to reduce the sum that you have been insured for in accordance with a formula that takes into account the premium that would have been payable if you had disclosed all relevant matters to us.

Fraudulent non-disclosure

If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, we also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning at any time.
